

WHO

DO YOU THINK YOU ARE?

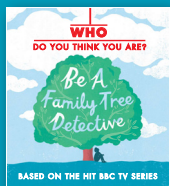

Create Your Own Family Timeline

There are many ways to present the information you discover about your family history. One great and informative way is a family timeline – a line on which you can put all the significant dates that have occurred in your family.

Jot down all the dates and events you know on the template below. Then draw your own pictures or stick on copies of old family photographs.

date:
event:

Who Do You Think You Are? Be a Family Tree Detective
by Dan Waddell