In Steve Light’s search-and-find book, the county fair is filled with shapes—and somewhere among them a monster is waiting to be found.

A little girl gallivants through a county fair, searching for her furry friend. Throughout the story, readers will surely spot the friendly monster as well as twenty shapes hidden among iconic fair attractions from the fun house to the Ferris wheel. Maybe the monster is judging the pies? Or perhaps he’s at the monster truck rally?

HOST AN EVENT

Invite your young readers to a Have You Seen My Monster? event. After reading the book together, engage little ones with fun activities, including a coloring sheet and a maze. Then send them off on a scavenger hunt to locate all of the shapes . . . and the monster!

MATERIALS:
Shapes (included on next page)
Pencils
Small prizes

TO PREPARE:
Print a scavenger hunt checklist for each participant.
Print the attached pages of shapes and cut them out along the dotted lines.
Print this page and cut out the monster along the dotted line.
Designate a room or space for the scavenger hunt and hide the shapes. Save a tricky spot for the monster!
Gather a container of pencils.

TO PLAY:
Give each participant a scavenger-hunt checklist and a pencil. Instruct the children to search for the shapes that are hidden around the room and check off each shape when they find it on their list. Bonus points if they spot the monster!
